- Glossary -

alphabet: insider slang for a government agent, from the use of acronyms as titles of government departments

aDNA: ancient DNA

Area 51: Facility at Papoose Lake

BCW: Biological & chemical warfare

bird: insider slang for alien

cherubim:

crossbridge: A group of 32 cells (8 tetrads) formed from A GP which extends from the target cell to a secondary cell. The crossbridge is associated with a shiva linga

CotM: Committee of the Majority. A Scottish rite Masonic based committee of 33 men operating with U.S. and other governments

DCTP: Doctrine of Convergent Timeline Paradox. In this doctrine consequences of time travel are stacked in reality like a stack of cards

DMT: a hallucenogen ?

Dulce facility: Facility at LANL east of Area 51. "My experience during the time I stayed there was horrifying. You know, when you hear human beings screaming in pain?" - DrB

EBE: Extraterrestrial Biological Entity

Eloah Va Daath:

HAARP:

GP: Ganesh Particle; emerges from an activated quatrz crystal and travels down an electromagnetic river to the target cell. Once attached, one end of GP opens up like a flower and the shiva linga

J-Rod: A class of EBE from the Reticulum area. Chi' iielah -- the particular J-Rod associated with DrB --was housed in a pressurized hydrogen Clean Sphere at Level 5 of S4, and had a degenerative neurological condition. The appearance of the J-Rods is similar to that of the "grey" aliens recovered from Roswell.

Land of Enchantment: insider slang for the state of New Mexico

LANL: Los Alamos National Labs

Lotus Protocol: A genesis mechanism associated with the Tree of Life

Lotus Project: a subset of the Starflower project

Majestic 12: A group of scientists and scientific advisors who work for the CotM

MJ: Majestic 12

Patchwork: The controlled release of information to the public.

Pearls of Brahma: a group of viruses emitted from the GP on the side offosite the shiva linga

Project Aquarius:

Rancher: George W Bush

Raindancer: a compartmentalized project within the chemtrail project

S4: Sector 4 facility outside of Area 51

Section D: biological tinkering facility

Shiva linga: The tube that emerges from the opened GP to penetrate another cell

Starflower Project: A project which deals the effects of extraterrestrial interactions throughout history and today

Sweetness: insider slang for the Dulce facility

Tiphereth:

T9 treaty:

Vishnu Schist: Source of quartz crystal in the Frenchman Mountains, Nevada

Voynich Manuscript: An encoded document written by Francis Bacon.

Watertown: insider slang for Area 51

Yellow Book: A book showing possible futures

Internet Chats/Interviews with Dan Burisch

2 - DonDep November 13 2003

Without further adieu, the sections marked with brackets [.....] are my own observations to help you get the picture. I watched him as he laughed, grinned, shuffled around getting coffee and the CD, looking almost exactly as he did a year ago.

Dan Burisch: Is this DonDep? I have control of Dr. Burisch's sys. I can patch you through in a few minutes.

DonDep: Yes, it is. How will I know it's him?

Dan Burisch: He is waiting for a late interrogatory and believe me you will. He's not happy. When he signs in, you will see the switch code. I can establish video and possibly audio if you wish?

DonDep: I don't have a cam here. But if this messenger feature allows me to see, I'll wish it, yes.

Dan Burisch: Very good. I have him at his desk. He has no idea whatsoever that you will be on. He thinks it's an interrogatory reply so be gentle with him when you tell him. He is skittish. Standby for just a couple …

DonDep: Hi, Dan ...so good to finally see you.

Dan Burisch: Who?

DonDep: This is 'dondep' who has practically memorized every word of your interview with Bill Hamilton

Dan Burisch: standby … [Dan picks up a phone, I'm watching him on a webcam]

Dan Burisch: I have been informed that this is a legit authorized call. Uh, dondep, I heard your name once but that's it. How'd you find me?

DonDep: I thank you for your courage. And many of your fellow humans out here would like to know what side in the fracture of the Committee of the Majority you are on? [I'm still not seeing Dan, but typing furiously. 'StarryEyes' is telling me what the video is doing.]

DonDep: You are a hero to many, many people out here and across the globe.

Dan Burisch: standby … I need a sip of 'Jo'. [Dan and his coffee! Everpresent!]

Dan Burisch: Okay...well, that's nice. "Hero" I am not. They lie in Arlington.

DonDep: We know how hard you've been working on Lotus and the Ganesh. And if I understand correctly, there are 2 factions fighting for the soul of this planet?

Dan Burisch: At least 2.

DonDep: How's BJ? She last emailed me on July 29.

Dan Burisch: I am aware of 2, comprising one hostile and the other the J-Rods from ret./Brothers from Orionis.

Dan Burisch: I haven't heard from her in well over a year.

Dan Burisch: See me,? You have video?

DonDep: Do you believe the J-Rods are "good"? Or could they be subservient to a selfish group, higher than they?

Dan Burisch: Do you have video?

DonDep: I'll give you my band's website URL if you'd like to see me. I can see you but have no cam here.

Dan Burisch: I can't surf at will, but thanks.

Dan Burisch: As to your questions ... The J-Rod to which I was assigned was a humble traveler, given a mission. He fulfilled it to his best and gave his life to it. He was good and did not fool me or anything like that.

They are us. There does exist a faction that wants to open Pandora's Box, now. They are selfish and arrogant. They are also racists.

DonDep: Tens of thousands -- probably hundreds of thousands -- are familiar with your story. My wife and I are even now in Canada, trying to stay safe and undead over your story. We are also involved with the story of 'zetatalk'. Are you familiar with it?

Dan Burisch: Thanks for the adrenalin rush. First time I have shook in months! Nancy Lieder? PX and all that?

DonDep: There is a strong strain of Christian-based fundamentalism that is framing any interaction with ETs as "fallen angels". … Yes, Nancy Lieder.

Dan Burisch: They aren't fallen angels. No more than we, as humans, are.

DonDep: No-one else talks about Majestic other than in your story. Yes, I know they're not "fallen angels" .. LOL

Dan Burisch: I don't understand, I thought MJ was a big thing to muse over?

DonDep: You work for MJ. And Nancy claims to. Is she telling the truth, in your opinion?

Dan Burisch: Have I worked for Majestic, you mean? Do I? Is that the q?

DonDep: You claimed you knew "darn well" what Majestic was up to on several fronts. Does your work go to the folks who run Majestic?

Dan Burisch: Ya. The CotM broke apart, so we are back to the 1950's with the Chain-o-Command.

DonDep: Thanks. I had asked to make sure they didn't have a gun-in-your-back if we were lucky enough to hear from you.

Dan Burisch: Let me check. … [He's looking around to see what's behind him. No gun, of course, so he makes a huge grin and whatever ice there was melted at this moment]

Dan Burisch: Nope not at the moment! Later … after this conversation? Who knows?

DonDep: A faction has intruded on our forum thread, stating that CotM was divided into 2 groups of 16 …

Dan Burisch: They can't eat me that's cannibalism ...

DonDep: One group -- headed by "J" --with your help is being recalcitrant …

Dan Burisch: If the term ...

DonDep: They are hiding the Ganesh (or Lotus?) in the Ark …

Dan Burisch: … 'recalcitrant' means that he is not willing to hand over the Lotus, before an agreement to which the rogue J-Rods may be bound ... Yes.

DonDep: Which the other group is sending a team into 2004-2005 after the 'what' cataclysm to find it?

Dan Burisch: They are bargaining to have an increased abduction rate to 10,000,000 per year plus the Lotus prior to the T9 treaty being signed.

DonDep: What should the rogue J-rods be bound by, and why are they 'rogue'?

Dan Burisch: I know of that ... They are abducting individuals worldwide, without the permission of the present human authorities. They are also the culprits in many of the cattle mutilations.

DonDep: We are being given to understand that the treaty is only to be signed by the faction that wishes to keep the populace in-the-dark with no 'disclosure'.

Dan Burisch: The ones not committed by drug companies, etc.

Dan Burisch: No, no, no ...

DonDep: The other faction wishes to be announced and conduct peaceful discourse. In your opinion, why has there been no disclosure as of yet, or is that planned?

Dan Burisch: The treaty is established between the remnants of the world-wide human authority previously run by the CotM ... stand by ...I can only type so fast ...

DonDep: Okay, I'll keep quiet for a bit. Can you speak to the Planet X-Nancy Lieder situation also?

Dan Burisch: ...Okay ... Let me back up to find where we were. No, there is no disclosure planned -- at least to my knowledge -- continuing. But, in a sense, it is happening anyway. By the time anyone figures out what I am doing (large populace wise), the course will already have been taken by humanity. You have to understand what I have told people -- while being true -- will probably not make a bit of difference after the course has been taken. The purpose of the treaty -- that is, the purpose of involving the rogue faction of J-Rods …

Hey I have a quick question ... okay?

DonDep: Okay

Dan Burisch: If you decide to share any of this with anyone, fix my typos!

DonDep: Absolutely!!!

Dan Burisch: … the purpose of involving the rogue faction of J-Rods is to hold them down on two fronts. The first front is of lesser importance: to hold them down to an agreed-upon abduction rate and list like the list I was on when a boy and it happened to me in 1973. The second: they MUST promise to not interfere (MIBs) with representatives of foreign governments.

DonDep: They must promise to not send MIBs to foreign gov'ts?

Dan Burisch: They have been planting the seeds of discontent with their places in the world in order to obtain their assistance with present time research into the neurological deficit. That is how they do the communications. The MIBs are aliens. Well. ETÂs, not really aliens.

In return, the governments have been obtaining technology from them. Stargate technology. Stargate technology to move across the Universe or access other dimensions? We -- meaning the U.S. -- must root out and find the stargates that are man-made. Yes, to access vast distances. And with that technology goes time access as well.

In 2012, the Sun will shower the Earth with waves of energy, bound to the Einstein-Rosen bridges that are clumped together at the Galactic equator.

DonDep: Is this the same group of ETAs that "gave" us the saucers, and then sat back and laughed as our war machine tried to use them, falling flat-on-their-face?

Dan Burisch: Dan Burisch: Well, yes, kind of.

DonDep: Is one of the stargates in Iraq?

Dan Burisch: Two. We have one of them. All of the natural stargates will turn 'on'...and as they say in Hollywood, "something wonderful will happen". What that means, I don't really know. But, if we do not capture and disable the man-made ones, the record books read that we will undergo a tragedy -- 4 billion at minimum dead.

DonDep: Why must we disable the manmade ones?

Dan Burisch: The excess energy from the activated stargates was theorized by the 'folks' from-the-future to have been a main cause of a pole shift, first then geophysical …

DonDep: So how does the Ark and Planet X fit into this scenario?

Dan Burisch: The Ark is being built in the United States. Where? I shouldn't say to you. It is the progenitor of the ones that go to the Moon and Mars. The remaining peoples will comprise that group which will lead -- through microevolution -- to becoming J-Rods.

DonDep: I learned from good-hearted people close to you that you finished the project for the Ark back on Dec 4.

Dan Burisch: My portion is complete. Biospherics work mainly. But, the model is due at the end of 2004.

DonDep: And who becomes the Orion group? Not the 'elite', planning their escape this very moment?

Dan Burisch: It is not just the 'elite', so-to-speak that will be going. People from every continent have been chosen. Because of J's work, many of the rich power-brokers have been excluded. They have been chosen from all fields of endeavor. As for PX. (Planet 'X'), Nancy is very correct that PX is "out there". It is something very different than what she has interpreted though.

DonDep: Dan, is it possible that the group that signed this unconstitutional treaty with the elitists that control the ET-related projects is quite possibly not have our best interests in mind? Is there any really good reason we will never see official disclosure?

DonDep: That's what many of us thought: PX is the gateway to the center of our galaxy. We knew she wasn't completely nuts.

Dan Burisch: It is tied with "something wonderful", but I don't know what that means. I believe that William Henry is correct in that regard.

DonDep: So is it a 'brown dwarf"? A celestial object? Or something more akin to a black hole? A massive stargate? Will it cause a pole shift in the very near future, as she claims?

Dan Burisch: More akin to an oval mass of energy that acts as a stargate. The DCTP -- familiar with that concept?

DonDep: Yes, familiar with it quite a bit! Hot topic for thousands right now!

Dan Burisch: The electromagnetic pole shift is already underway. You can track that from geomagnetic observations of magnetic North.

DonDep: We are applying our collective consciousness to how we can have free will simultaneously with this time-travel fact.

Dan Burisch: The action of free will is a certainty, but the actions of the paradox seamlessly overlays reality upon it. We chose to act, and reality plays itself out as a stack of cards.

DonDep: How can the future be established and we still have free will? Does that mean that there are alternate realities in which we've made different decisions?

Dan Burisch: That I don't know. I hope so, would like to know that I have erased a few mistakes that I can think of.

DonDep: So nothing to add to what you said in the video about the DCTP?

Dan Burisch: Which video?

DonDep: Since I'm speaking for so many at the moment, I'm trying to make sure I get the check list in order, the one with BJ and Bill [referring to the video I have; just reading his post as I finished this sentence].

Dan Burisch: There was a video created after that. I find out that J allowed my passage to it.

DonDep: There was??? I thought I was your worldwide biographer! LOL. Can your friends that arranged this arrange for that too?

Dan Burisch: You are not aware that one was completed for Bill Hamilton that William Gazeki did?

DonDep: No, was not!

Dan Burisch: This was before the CotM broke apart.

Dan Burisch: Yes, a long one.

DonDep: Can I simply ask Bill for it? Does he have that one too?

Dan Burisch: It was being set for some kind of public release they said ... Hollywood types! He owns it. That's what he told me that day.

DonDep: Perhaps an effort to plug the leak the first one created and which I fear for my very life in transcribing it …

Dan Burisch: It was done in a motel room with full sound studio like apparatus...and those horrible lights.

DonDep: Sounds too 'produced'. People may not trust it.

Dan Burisch: I was asked a simple question during it. Can two different realities exist at the same time? I said sure. Gazeki asked how can that be proven or some sort, as "where can that be found?"

DonDep: I hope you were as authentic and impassioned on that one as you were on the original!

DonDep: So it was scripted?

Dan Burisch: Bill Hamilton and some English man asked questions. Alan Gudaitis from Nevada MUFON was present, as well as Ron Garner, BillÂ´ss friend and head of, of all things ...

DonDep: So to go back to the Secrets of the Universe, that you are the keeper of....what is the Ganesh to be used for? Tell me what I can say to Bill that will let him know you and I discussed this!

Dan Burisch: Stargate Productions!

DonDep: LOL!!!!

Dan Burisch: I am no keeper of such things. I look and humbly ask God to see. God is the keeper. The Ganesh can't be used! I fight everyday ...

DonDep: OF ALL THINGS! Yes, you are a humble man and a hero. Would that the rest of us could be as such!

Dan Burisch: No, you live by faith, yes?

DonDep: Yes . Love gives me unconscious faith. And your many friends out here feel the same, believe me.

Dan Burisch: Then you are more blessed than me, as are the rest. I live knowing what I have seen ... no faith needed now.

DonDep: Have you seen a holograph of our future, then?

Dan Burisch: Yes.

DonDep: Will a catastrophe happen before year's end? I can keep that confidential if need be, we have but a month-or-so anyway.

Dan Burisch: I can give no more than I have given, with respect to the future. I am sorry. What I have seen, I know can be changed.

DonDep: Then we do have hope! We can change the future with our free will, correct?

Dan Burisch: If I breathe it, it can help it come to pass. What you ask, because I would literally be laying a timeline on a timeline with the information. And that would be wrong. Yes, the catastrophe does not have to come to pass. If it doesn't, the J-Rods (and out other half) that exist in the future will continue in this reality, but time shifted to the present.

So the DCTP says. That is why I am fighting so hard. But there exists people that would try to turn this into a technology that would be akin to grabbing the fruit of the Tree of Life. I can't help them, whatsoever. If I do, I would also be grabbing; and I fear those consequences a 1000-fold greater than a gun-to-my-back. Or even one discharged.

The Lotus is a natural thing. It isn't something that some Frankenstein's laboratory cooked up. It exists all around us. We are part of it, and it, us. Every mote of dust emits the particles, naturally. It is the driving force, through the Creator (Blessed be He) that moves life on earth forward to His will.

The Ganesh particles are those modes of transportation whereby the actions of the Divine One hands through and over the Daat, a piece of the Supernal. As we are God, He is us. The Tree of Life is what we are. Not just Humans, but the entire experience of life. The Ganesh particles have been there all along. They hide themselves under bent waves of electromagnetism, and flicker out of existence, back across the Daat with little effort. The crude laboratory protocols of today limit -- by their very nature -- the ability to find them. The sifting, sorting, etc. I found them by a process of elimination. I mean, I was kind of told they were there …

DonDep: Thankfully for that; my wife and I are tired of dodging surveillance teams and phone taps. We are only trying to do what any human should do to help the rest of humanity. And I KNOW that there is a 'dark force' that wants the Fruit for itself. We are all trying hard to discern 'which' side is which, 'which' is good, and why the PTB are hiding the truth about ET from us. Many of our fellow humans may be stunned with the realization of ET as more than a myth. But the rest of us have been dumbed-down for so long we need a collective exclamation to wake up to the Creator and the hierarchy between It and us. Do you think the Lotus, the Ganesh Particles, are a world-seed then? Told by Chi'ielah?

Dan Burisch: Where did you get that name?

DonDep: From one of the non-J faction that spoke to the assemblage on the forum I represent. I was told it was the name of your friend from the Clean Sphere.

Dan Burisch: Well, I promised the J-Rod that I would never speak his name, so onward ...

DonDep: You never spoke the name. 'He' won't blame you.

Dan Burisch: The Ganesh particles, as best I can understand them, have seed earth since the inception of life here. They are much more -- if you can believe it -- than that though, in my opinion (hypotheses follow) ...

DonDep: I was also told that the forum is being used to play out the conflict between these two factions and so we would have a hand in history -- a spiritual think-tank, if you will -- for humanity

Dan Burisch: Let me speak to that... If they are playing out some game there (forum?), it is not for the benefit of humanity...

DonDep: The entity also said you are surrounded by a "light being" that "doesn't have their best future in mind".

Dan Burisch: Which side started it, and what was the person's name? The comments I mean?

DonDep: Another entity is possibly responsible for this conversation taking place, who shared some of your recent interrogatories with us.

Dan Burisch: The name of the one that started all these comments?

DonDep: The entity called itself "IMINVSBL", and the antagonist's name was "Peace".

Dan Burisch: IMINVSBL is the name of the person that used to threaten me during the writing of Eagles Disobey. And BJ Wolf. And Butch Howell. And Robert Charles DonDep: "IMINVSBL" stated the "diplomatic opposition" was going into 2004-2005 to find your '"project".

Dan Burisch: They have already tried that. I am aware. They have paid the consequence for grabbing at the fruit.

DonDep: Wow! So now we know. What is "his" perspective?

Dan Burisch: IMINVSBL's?

DonDep: Yes …

Dan Burisch: He is a representative of the rogues, I believe.

DonDep: He says he wants "J" to talk. Sounds almost arrogant, but we have to keep an open mind since BJ's last words to me were "all is not what it seems".

Dan Burisch: He -- and his minions --didn't want Eagles to come out at that time because of what the ruins on Mars really mean. And neither did I when I helped write the book.

DonDep: BJ promised me a copy. Any chance you can help? What do they really mean? The ruins, that is.

Dan Burisch: I have no copies of it. It was available years ago through Borders, but ...?

DonDep: She had plenty here in Canada until they took here away in September. Bill has been receiving anonymous photos of her in her apartment. They closed down the Eagles site but my cohorts have instituted mirror sites worldwide

Dan Burisch: The ruins are a timeline overlay of our future settlement. Arthur C. Clarke is aware of that fact, and even said that we would have a "nasty little surprise when we go there". Nothing like finding a human signature and future date written on something supposed ET, huh?

DonDep: He also knew about the Monolith, didn't he? They found it back in '62 then, right?

Dan Burisch: I don't know about a Monolith, aside from that it was a good gag in the movie. Took her away?????

DonDep: they brought the original monolith back in '72. Yes, they did something to BJ.

Dan Burisch: Confirmed?

DonDep: They also ransacked your parents' house and took every last trace of your existence from it including one of the few copies of the taped interview that are now percolating throughout the world

Dan Burisch: Well ...if I comment further about that ... will you promise not to share it?

DonDep: from this point on, all will be xxx-ed until you say otherwise.

Dan Burisch: Okay...they told xxxx

DonDep: "Putting up a stink". Yes, the secrecy has stunk up the whole political fabric! Well, just tell me here and now why I should shut up -- why they keep hiding the truth -- and I'll go quietly back to my bunker and sulk!

Dan Burisch: Don xxxxxxx. from Dondep! Catch 22.

DonDep: Now that's an easy connection if you knew the real name.

Dan Burisch: I don't like to see people sulk. By-the-way,you can turn on the comments again.

DonDep: [emoticon with tongue sticking out]

Dan Burisch: Fine, the conversatiom will begin with you sticking your ( ) at me. I like that!

DonDep: The MIBs told you about me? That's troubling. Should I worry about them showing up and singing "Happy Birthday"?

Dan Burisch: [conversation]

Dan Burisch: You have been told a few things. Frankly, I think they are busy with treaty issues right now. But I can't speak for their alien rear-ends. We don't exactly have a friendship, they are not me! My keys are jumping around. … coffee ... stand by please ...

Dan Burisch: yummy ...

DonDep: So, what can I take back to this forum thread where thousands of enquiring minds want to know first of all if you're alive, and second should they fear "Planet X". Is the Lotus safe in your hands, is "J" a good guy, are the PTB really concerned about our welfare, why don't they tell us about ET, is the Ark a good thing, etc. ??

Dan Burisch: I am alive. No one should fear what they (public) really can change (PX issue). Look to Descartes for the philosophical bend on that. The Lotus is safe in God's hands. I am only allowed to see (record) what is being allowed ... as I have asked ... only to "look" over the East gate a bit. "J" is definitely a good guy, at least from my perspective. God-fearing, sound-reasoning, and he cares about people, etc

DonDep: And is it possible that there is a service-to other type of J-rod group that wants to meet us publicly? But there is a selfish group -- allied with the earthly CofM and other Masonic-based occult groups -- that wants to control and exploit us, especially our emotional energy? A letter is making the rounds on the Net that asks "Do you want us to show up?" It is well-written and asks earnestly for only a simple answer to that question. But a sincere answer. It claims that many things are being discovered in secret laboratories (read Majestic) that at present only the selfish faction has access to. It claims that if we say "yes" in our hearts, that will be our ballot -- our vote -- that we have the power to bring exposure, since the good faction has been locked out of the halls of the treaty-based groups that there is only 2 ways it can happen: through an agreement with duly-elected reps (WE DON'T HAVE THEM ANYMORE!) -or- through our own heart-felt wish to have transparency. What would you say?

Dan Burisch: No, many of the (P)owers (T)hat (B)e -- if I am taking the letters right -- are not concerned about our welfare. They have justified not telling us about ET out of fear for the timelines and panic (loss of psychological bearing due to the realization of being in a reality-stack (chimera)).. The Ark is a good thing if we fail in our mission. The race continues on (ultimately going to Orion) as already written in our future history. It just accomplishes what we already know about those from Orion.

I am unaware of the letter. Haven't even heard rumor of it. As to such concepts...

DonDep: The letter has more legs than the usual chain letter.

DonDep: Is it really fear on the part of our Elders that is keeping this all under wraps? Or the realization that they have covered for so long, it's too late and the social structure wouldn't allow for anything but a panic that would ruin our society? I can understand that; many of us really do because it resonates, has no agenda other than a simple answer, doesn't use NewAge-y words etc.

Dan Burisch: I was unaware until a few years ago of the Masonic connection to Majestic, that in fact they were also connected to the so-called Illuminati.

DonDep: I'm familiar with the entrances at 1733 and 2800 on 16th street to the hallowed halls

Dan Burisch: I am aware of the Temples. 1733 and 2800, addresses? Only been to one of them and was driven there. I was taken in down a long line of sphinxes...

DonDep: Yes, to 1789. You don't think they go in the front door, do you?

Dan Burisch: Anyway, the subculture within the MJ community let me in on all that Illuminati stuff.

DonDep: I found it more than ironic that the division is between 16 and 16 (with one passed over), on 16th St 333 "Investors" as the J-ASON Society is known the M-ASON Society.

Dan Burisch: The last I heard before the CotM breakup if that is to what you refer that the number was 15 for disclosure and the rest, a no....

DonDep: I was just told it was 16 to 16, with one "passed over", or abstention?

Dan Burisch: Then a big break up announcement and told everyone to just fall in line under the 10 remaining members of the MJ12, which is now 11 I hear...

Dan Burisch: I don't know.

DonDep: Not important to us at the moment, since we can't convince a single vote to switch, or can we?

Dan Burisch: The subculture told me and let me in on that fact that certain higher-ups (committee members) were Luciferians.

DonDep: Do you think we should have disclosure?

Dan Burisch: I have sway with 2 of the 12, but don't quote me on that!

DonDep: This conversation and its aftermath will have ramifications on our future …

Dan Burisch: Hold, I have to check your earlier q's to make sure I have given them some treatment.

DonDep: They did say you had some sway, so value it!

Dan Burisch: They are hiding the truth...to the best of my knowledge for two reasons. The government levels that are aware of the presence, mostly under that of the CotM. Some of them aren't even aware that the CotM really existed.

Dan Burisch: … know of the ET presence and have given allegiance to the secret. But they haven't known what the secret really was. They just think another species or series of species.

DonDep: "allegiance to the secret" ..... what?

Dan Burisch: The secret that ET exists. But they don't know that ET is us! So, they hide the secret to keep the government from being in trouble with the masses that would yell cover-up! The higher authorities hide that secret (from the future) from them (certain ones in Congress, Dept. of Defense, etc) about ET being us and from the public due to fear of emotional instability that can arise from the knowledge that our reality isn't what it exactly seems to be. So, there isn't one cover-up, there's TWO!

DonDep: they think they can't handle that truth? Shocking, but not impossible.

Dan Burisch: The lower ones I despise. They have given their allegiance for kibbles like dogs.

DonDep: But there are 2 groups of ETs, (spiritually), "as above, so below".

Dan Burisch: One group that is logical, mathematical J-Rods (meaning the number 15) and the other the "spiritual group", .the future of that group who would take to the Ark in time of catastrophe. Within the J-Rods are two-or-more --I'm not sure -- groups. One that is working with us, and the other that is very rogue and wants its own way to try to solve the problems.

DonDep: The 'spiritual' ones get to go "first-class" and the rest fly "coach"?

Dan Burisch: Not the problem of the possible catastrophe, mind you, the short sighted neuro-degenerative condition. They couldn't give a rats-ass about what they feel is inevitable. We do. We don't think it's inevitable.

DonDep: But there is more than one scenario for the future, right? Which means that everything isn't written in stone? "We" meaning the majority on the CotM?

Dan Burisch: It's only written in the mind of God. "We" meaning those that wished for disclosure in the first place within this last couple of years.

DonDep: The current majority which has 16. And the other 16 are what, more ethnical in flavor or more Luciferian?

Dan Burisch: That group NO LONGER EXISTS as a functional unit.

DonDep: Okay, the remains the 16 that allied with "J".

Dan Burisch: It is now under a control group, modeled after the original MJ-12.

DonDep: They wished for Disclosure. And are the remaining group, but the other ones ... what becomes of them?

Dan Burisch: I don't know. They haven't told me. I trust they are being held away from the rogue J-Rods though.

DonDep: I understand MJ-12 was the original superior group, and was surprised to learn they subordinated themselves to the CotM.

Dan Burisch: They better be with their connections.

DonDep: But what do these rogue J-rods want? They are pleading their case to us too, and we have to know what their agenda is to make a coherent decision.

Dan Burisch: They were put in the background some years ago when Illuminists took over and began working through the power structure of the Bavarians.

DonDep: In your opinion, of course, why were they put in the background?

Dan Burisch: Not really sure. I think they may be wishing to pressure me to release the data prior to their signature on the T9. All I have been told is that the Luciferians took over the Control Group (MJ-12 or whatever one would want to call it). They are now wandering the countryside apostates. They were getting us into a worse fix with the rogue J-Rods, leading us to a path of destruction.

DonDep: Apparently they are trying to go over the heads of the potentates who profess to speak for us, who are not even representing duly-elected representatives (we don't have "duly-elected" since 2000), and appeal to the populace. Possibly?

Dan Burisch: Correct. I have no problem -- intellectually --with this information reaching the populace. Sure there are many who would have some difficulty with it, but some have difficulty stepping away from the television, too. All kinds. I believe in humanity. I have reason to, as God believes in us.

DonDep: I feel a great sense of obligation to do what's right for humanity. Dan, my own self be damned, and as your friend/source-to-me said "I try to walk in the light", .wished that I could break this cycle but couldn't see it happening. I want to do what is right for all of us. Which is why this conversation is so important.

Dan Burisch: You won't be damned. People walk away from God, not He them. The angels are all around us. Bask in the information...the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge has already been taken. It's free now, just as the Book of Rezial was given to the post-fall notion of the Adam.

DonDep:.Yes, even one "clothed in light" is purported to be around you at this time. But as BJ reminded me in that e-mail about angels, "all is not what it seems". But truth be told, you can see their faces no matter which way they turn.

Dan Burisch: Angels are not always what they seem.

DonDep: Book of Rezial? One day, if I'm not "erased" over this, perhaps you can help me get a copy?

Dan Burisch: You can buy one on the Net. Just make sure you have a good translation ...standby….

DonDep: I think that is what was being told to me. The angel may not be of the good but more of a "fallen angel" variety. They cloak themselves in ritual, etc.

Dan Burisch: The one to whom you refer doesn't cloak under anything.

DonDep: Will do. Anything comparable to Oahspe?

Dan Burisch: "Sepher Rezial Hemelach", edited/translated by Steve Savedow. It helps to know Hebrew.

DonDep: Hey, if I knew Hebrew, I'd be working on the Bible Code.

DonDep: Meaning the one I was told that hovers near you is of the good variety? Not "cloaked"?

Dan Burisch: The only angels that I would allow near me are good. I am a human. I have that choice unless superceded by God (Blessed be He).

DonDep: Is that from the "Sepher" book?

Dan Burisch: That is my private email! Yes, that is the Rezial Book. HII...a secret name of the Creative God. Chay... Hebrew from creation work.

DonDep: "This god is the same as 'that' god....." I quote you quite a bit, but you're modest enough to tell. LOL

Dan Burisch: There is but One God.

DonDep: Is the Bible Code a real instrument within the DCTP?

Dan Burisch: It helps to know where you are looking in it.

DonDep: I was embarrassed when I finally found out, not too long ago. There are 2 scholars, Michael Drosnin, and another.

DonDep: What's that? [Dan is now waving a CD in front of the camera]

Dan Burisch: The Bible Code software

DonDep: Couldn't read the label?

Dan Burisch: I use the one that comes from Israel.

DonDep: Wow! One of the first projects on the old Eaglesdisobey forum...

DonDep: None of us could cough up the $75 bucks or so for a copy from Jerusalem.

Dan Burisch: Neither did I! [Dan is still waving the CD to the webcam]

Dan Burisch: I asked, they got.

DonDep: But I guess your "friends" could! LOL! That was right before we hurriedly moved to Canada, what with the daily surveillance.

Dan Burisch: standby … I have just been informed I have 5 minutes left. Sorry.

DonDep: Right. Thank whoever arranged this profusely. I want to make this historic moment work the most for all of us.

Dan Burisch: I have no idea how it was arranged. I expected to see a reviewer number on my screen ... pleasant surprise!

DonDep: Have we the best answer then on Planet X, the Ganesh, the Lotus, the Ark, MJ-12, why the rogue J-rods are up to no good, etc.?

Dan Burisch: Well, those topics are hours if-not-days of discernment. I think we have touched them in a fair manner. Thanks for spreading the word about the Lotus.

DonDep: We have good-hearted people involved in doing good things. Want to make sure I don't let them down either. Give them my best, and tell the people who know about these things to please let us live in safety, quietly, and I can share what I should be sharing from the anonymity of a good-hearted avatar.

Dan Burisch: When it is finally realized what it truly is, people may again know God.

DonDep: What is it then, truly? And once again, are we in for a rough ride shortly?

DonDep: Dan?

DonDep: To whomever; thank you.
